

CAMERON WINS STATE CONTEST

Mexico City Grid Team Here Sept. 22

This is how J. B. Cranfil of Dallas looks at Roosevelt's record and the New Deal:

Some six years ago Franklin D. Roosevelt, then Governor of New York and a candidate for President, said:

"If, in some crisis, a Government lives beyond its income for a year or two, it can usually borrow temporarily on reasonable terms. But if, like a spendthrift, it throws discretion to the winds, is willing to make no sacrifice at all in spending, extends its taxing to the limit of the people's power to pay and continues to pile up deficits, it is on the road to bankruptcy."

If Mr. Roosevelt as President had practiced what he preached when he was a candidate, the 1929 depression would have been over long ago and we would now be on easy street. Instead, with the idiocies and insanities of the new deal, we are in a worse depression, if possible, than we were when the so-called pump-priming started. The country is almost where Roosevelt, the candidate prophesied it would be if we did the very things that he and his satellites have done since he took office.

The old adage, "Experience keeps a dear school and fools will learn in no other," needs a new version to read, "Experience keeps a dear school and fools will learn even in that." More than fifteen billions of dollars have been thrown to the winds by the new deal. Except as a means of procuring votes for the Roosevelt regime, it has on all fronts been a colossal failure. It could well be called a campaign for the promotion of mendacity. Many lazy, thriftless men who have become wards of the Government, will never willingly work again. Individual initiative has in a great degree disappeared. From diapers to doughnuts the new deal wasters are seeking to prescribe for the American people the new manner of life, which is to bleed the Government in every possible way for personal gain.

In addition to all the other insanities, the Government is now paying men and women to be idle. They draw down in idleness salaries they are supposed to be able to earn if they were employed.

Business is in a state of perennial alarm, for business executives of balanced minds realize that instead of helping the people of the United States to prosperity, the new deal is robbing prosperity of its hard-earned assets and making over the fruits of their frugality to the ne'er-do-wells who are willing, and some of them glad, to be the wards of the Government instead of members of the wealth-producing class of the United States.

If the average business man conducted his affairs as the new deal is conducting the affairs of the United States Government, he would be tried for lunacy and get a unanimous verdict for a home in the most convenient insane asylum.

Only two soldiers in our history rose from private to the highest rank in the United States Army—Samuel B. M. Young and Adna R. Chaffee. Both enlisted as privates at the outbreak of the Civil War in 1861, Young in the volunteers and Chaffee in the regular Army, and both eventually attained the rank of lieutenant general.

Young's rise in the volunteers was rapid, and he was mustered out as a brevet brigadier general, at the age of 25. The following year he accepted an appointment in the regular Army as second lieutenant, which was one of the biggest drops in rank Coach L. C. Wood announced Tuesday that contract had been signed with the American Foundation School in Mexico City for appearance here on September 22, 1938, of its football team.

On October 12, 1938, the Yoemen will return the game in Mexico City.

Coach Wood, now concluding his spring practice, was pleased with developments and saw in the Mexico City game an opportunity to give his boys a real trip and was hopeful that the squad would be one of the best in years.

The coach was still disturbed about the line for 1938. He will have a surplus in the backfield. The search for a punter was going on with Senior Harry Hughes getting the opportunity. A pass offense was regarded as the most essentially desirable of all scoring punches. The teams have been weak on passing.

DR. C. G. SWIFT IS MEDICAL SOCIETY HEAD

Dr. Clifford G. Swift is the new President of the Milam County Medical Society and will succeed Dr. E. Rischar.

Business meeting of the society on Wednesday night was held in Cameron hospital and officers were elected for the year.

Dr. Barkley of Rockdale was elected secretary and treasurer to succeed Dr. T. Leland Denson.

Dr. Rischar will serve as delegate to the state medical meeting with Dr. Swift as alternate delegate. The meeting will be held in Galveston May 9, 10, 11 and 12.

The society here invited the traveling tuberculosis clinic to visit Cameron, the date to be determined later. This is co-operation with the state department of health.

Milk Cows Broke Depression Says P. O. Armstrong

Cows are depression breakers for Milam county farmers and patrons of the Kraft-Phenix Cheese plant in Cameron.

"My cows kept me on the farm," said P. O. Armstrong who lives 3 miles north of Cameron on the Waco highway on the W. H. Triggs farm. "But for my Jersey's it would have been impossible for me to keep going and to maintain myself and my wife. Cows were my salvation and they broke the depression for me."

Mr. Armstrong's story is one of the best examples of what can be done with cows on the farm and selling milk to the Cameron plant.

Mr. Armstrong rents land. He is now milking 14 cows and they belong to him without debt. He began selling milk when the plant opened here. He had one cow in 1936. The

Milam Monument To Be Ready Within 30 Days Says Report

Monument to Ben Milam, patriot, authorized by Texas Centennial funds, will be erected soon on the southwest corner of the court house lawn in Cameron.

Construction of the foundation was expected to begin within the week. The monument may be erected within the month, it was announced this week.

Inscription for the statue will be: "Benjamin Rush Milam. Born in Kentucky 1788. Soldier in the war of 1812. In Texas in 1818, traded with the Comanche Indians. Colonel in the Long Expedition 1820. Emprario 1826-1835. Participated in the capture of Goliad October 9, 1835. Killed in San Antonio December 7, 1835, while commanding the Texan forces which later captured the town. 'Who will follow old Ben Milam into San Antonio'"

R. A. DEVERS ASKING FOR REELECTION

R. A. (Woodie) Devers has announced his candidacy for re-election to Herald readers effective with the Primary election to be held on Saturday, July 23.

Mr. Devers had announced his candidacy several weeks ago and now makes his appeal through the columns of this newspaper. Generally friends of Mr. Devers were happy to know that he would again offer for re-election. They believe he has served the people well and made them a good treasurer.

Mr. Devers, in making his announcement, said that he wanted the people to elect him one more time. After that he does not expect to offer again. His circumstances now compels him to ask for another term. Mr. Devers, although a cripple, manages to be at his office at all times and to transact his business. In ad-

CITY REJECTS PLAN OF WATER COMPANY

A resolution offered by the Water Company asking the city to waive any rights it may have under a franchise option to put a value on the plant here and to purchase it, was tabled by the council on Tuesday night.

The Water Company does not admit the validity of the franchise option but indicated it would agree to the selection of appraisors if the city would waive its claims that the rights exist for condemnation of the property by fixing an arbitrary value on it.

On March 28 the city passed a resolution notifying the Company that the city had elected to purchase the water properties, citing a franchise provision that the city has the right to name an appraisor and the company an appraisor.

The submission of a resolution by the Company was the first definite indication that the water company might be willing to sell its properties at a value fair to its interests.

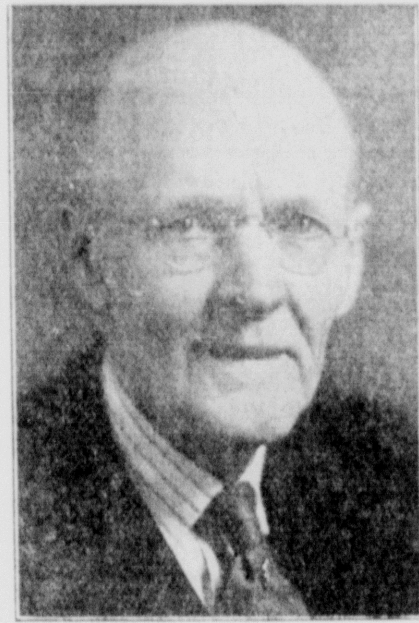

Memorial Park at Nashville Will Be Dedicated

On May 1st the site of Old Nashville, capital of Robertson's colony more than one hundred years ago, will be dedicated as a memorial park.

Members of Sarah McCalla chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Milam County Commissioners, are joining in planning the program.

All Milam county citizens and descendants of the pioneers at Nashville are invited to attend the ceremonies beginning at 2:30 p. m.

Founded Rotary

Paul P. Harris

Paul P. Harris, founder of Rotary, was born April 19, 1868, at Racine, Wisconsin. He was educated in the public schools and academies in Vermont, the University of Vermont, Princeton University, and the University of Iowa, receiving the degrees of Ph. B., LL. B., and LL. D.

After completing his law course in 1891, he spent the following five years in seeing the world and learning to know his fellows by actual contact with them under all sorts of conditions. He worked as a reporter on daily papers in San Francisco and Denver, rode the range in the cow country, picked oranges in southern Louisiana, sold marble and granite, crossed the Atlantic twice on cattle ships, and made a third trip to Europe on business.

The acquaintances which he made in college and during his travels were of material assistance in the early extension of Rotary.

In 1896 he felt he had gained sufficient practical knowledge to be of

ROTARY MOVEMENT IS A WORLD INFLUENCE

The Rotary movement took form, after five years of study by the founder, on the evening of February 23, 1905. Paul P. Harris, a young Chicago attorney, met with three of his friends to discuss the organization of a club for business and professional men, the purpose of which would be mutual helpfulness. Within a few weeks the club had nineteen members, officers were chosen and the Rotary Club of Chicago began its career.

First Clubs Start

Inspired by the enthusiasm generated in this first club, the founder began efforts to organize Rotary clubs in other cities. It was three years before the second club was organized in San Francisco, but within five years, sixteen of the largest cities in the United States had Rotary clubs.

When the Chicago Club grew too large to meet in members' offices, it was proposed to meet at luncheon, or occasionally at dinner. From the name "Rotary" and the thought of rotation among one's friends, came

SCHOOL FUNDS CUT SHORT IN MILAM CO

The State Department of Education has notified Guy T. Newton, County Superintendent that applications for aid all over the state far exceed the amount of money appropriated by the Legislature for such purposes. This means that the Transportation Aid and Teacher Aid will be cut short and a number of our schools will have to close from one to three weeks earlier than their contracted time and quite a few busses will be forced to stop unless they can receive pay from other sources.

The Legislature appropriated only $2,200,000 for Teachers Aid and $1,780,000 for Transportation Aid and since the applications for Aid exceed these amounts, the State Department is of the opinion that the Teachers Aid will be paid on a basis

CAMERON ROTARY GETS CHARTER AT BANQUET

Rotary became a reality in Cameron Monday night when Dr. Clifford G. Swift accepted a charter from Rotary International, presented to the local club by Alan S. Pimental, District Governor. The Charter Number is 4669.

The occasion was celebrated with a banquet of unusual color and beauty with 105 seated for the plate served by women of the First Methodist church. The Rotarians paid $1 per plate for the privilege of attending.

While the charter presentation was the climax of the evening Rotarians heard an address on Rotary by Rich, and Hawkins of Huntsville, former District Governor. They heard Walter Jenkins of Houston sing with Miss Thelma Slocum also of Houston at the piano in what was acclaimed an inspirational program by one of the greatest artists of the nation.

Dr. Arthur E. Ballard of Belton, President of the Belton Rotary Club, called the meeting to order shortly after 7:30 p. m. His first act of charming hospitality was to ask the women of the church to stand before the assembled Rotarians and receive a cordial cheer for the lovely appointed banquet.

Dr. Ballard took not eof a gavel presented to the Rotary Club on the

PRESBYTERIANS LOOK TO ROLL CALL SUNDAY

When the roll is called Sunday morning April 24th at 11 o'clock, Presbyterians of the city will answer in one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the history of the church, which was organized in 1882.

The church began with a charter membership of 13 of which only three are now living. Through the fifty-six years from 1882 to 1938 the church has had a steady growth. In recent months many have been added to the church by letter and by profession. During the past sixty days

Leads Revival

REV. A. Y. DOSSEY

First Baptist church was the religious center of the city this week with one of the outstanding evangelists of Texas conducting a revival. He is A. Y. Dossey, well known here for his previous campaigns.

The church is experiencing a major spiritual development said Rev. Vernon G. Miles, pastor. Large crowds are flocking to hear the Evangelist whose pulpit oratory and preaching from Bible doctrines is creating wide comment. Other churches are joining in for the revival and the next ten days will see a sweeping climax to an already great revival in Cameron.

Dr. Dossey announced the following subject for the remainder of the week.

Thursday Night—The end of the world and the opening of God's books. Friday Night—Where are the dead.

Saturday Night—Three things to remember about a woman.

Sunday Morning—Prepare to meet thy God.

Sunday Night—The unpardonable sin.

Monday Night—The home.

Tom Sawyer Brings His Andevntures to Cameron Screen on April 21 and 22

It was following a stay in England, where he had lectured for two months steadily at the Savoy Theatre and became the most talked of figure in London, that Mark Twain came back home to write what his biographer, Paine, called "the book that will longest preserve his memory."

This was "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," now brought to the screen by David O. Selznick as a great technical motion picture production to be shown at the Cameron Theatre April 21 and 22.

It was generally understood that when the book came out it embodied biographical material gathered in boyhood days spent along the river front in Hannibal, which in 1845 was typical of most small towns in the state of Missouri, but which, because of its location on the Mississippi River, had a flavor all its own.

A river town differs from a prairie town, much as a seaport town might differ from its counterpart in the interior of England.

Near the new home he built in Hartford, Connecticut, Mark Twain had constructed a special study which he used as a workshop during the writing of "Tom Sawyer." Of it, he said:

"It is the loveliest study you ever saw. It is octagonal, with a peaked roof, each space filled with a spacious window, and it sits perched in complete isolation on top of an elevation that commands leagues of valley and city and retreating ranges of distant blue hills..."

Despite these ideal surroundings, Mark did not work steadily at the Sawyer book. It was virtually finished two years prior to its publication. Philosophically, the author said of his work:

"I have finished the story, but didn't take the chap (Tom Sawyer) beyond boyhood. If I went on now, and took him into manhood, he would lie, like all the one-horse men in literature, and the reader would conceive a healthy contempt for him."

Upon reading the manuscript, Editor Howells of the Atlantic Monthly, confirmed this judgment of the author. He wrote to Mark:

"It is altogether the best boy story I ever read. It will be an immense success, but I think you ought to treat it exactly as a boy's story; grown-ups will enjoy it just as much if you do, and if you should put it forth as a study of boyhood from the grown-up point of view, you would give the wrong key to it."

Tom Sawyer was so popular with Mark Twain's vast audience, however, that the author couldn't let him die with one book. In "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," which some critics consider of higher literary work than "Tom Sawyer," Tom is presented as a secondary, but vigorous and wholly charming character. He also appears in "Tom Sawyer, Detective," and again in "Tom Sawyer Abroad." But never does he grow up, and turn into a "one-horse liar." About him there is always the ineffable spirit of truth.

In bringing Mark Twain's best loved and most widely known work to the screen, producer David O. Selznick combed the highways and byways of the United States for as he said, "Tom Sawyer in the flesh, an untouched, real boy," whom everyone would immediately recognize as the counterpart of the immortal character created by Mark Twain.

Finally, after more than 25,000 boys from all walks of life in practically every state of the union had been viewed, tested or interviewed, 12 year old Tommy Kelly from the Bronx was selected as the unknown who would bring Mark Twain's unforgettable character of boyhood to the screen.

Mr. Selznick saw the color possibilities in this Mark Twain classic and accordingly the picture was produced entirely in technicolor.

Norman Taurog, famous for his direction of juveniles, was chosen as the director.

The important cast assembled are Jackie Moran as Huckleberry Finn, May Robson as Aunt Polly, Walter Brennan as Muff Potter, Ann Gillis as Becky Thatcher, Victor Jory as Injun Joe, Micky Rentschler as Joe Harper and David Holt as Sid Sawyer. A score of other well-known child and adult players also appear.

"The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" is released through United Artists.

Fight On Syphilis Discussed at PTA Meeting Here

Mrs. W. O. Triggs of the Parent Teacher Association, read the following paper at the meeting held on Tuesday:

"Syphilis is a terrible enemy of the human race and especially of young people, but it is not an enemy to be feared, for it can be fought and conquered, because it yields to medical treatment.

"For 30 years Doctors have had the necessary scientific information to deal with syphilis. Treatment brings a cure and, even in the latter stages, syphilis fight is not only a medical fight, but the public must bring this fight into the light.

"On the recommendation of the National Conference on venereal disease control, joined by the conference of State Health Officers, a bill was recently introduced into the United States Senate by Senator LaFollette and into the House by Representative Bulwinkle which will provide funds with which to fight and to stamp out syphilis in this country.

This bill, H. R. 9047 provides for the funds to be expended over a period of thirteen years. For the first year, three million dollars, six million the second year, then twelve, then twenty-five million each year for a period of ten more years. Some of this money will be available for studies and investigations to develop more effective measures for the prevention and for the control of venereal diseases.

"This may seem a large amount of money but let us look at some estimates given by Dr. Parran, surgeon general of the public health services. Dr. Parran says that every year $31,400,000 is spent in this country for the care of syphilitic insane; another $10,000,000 is spent every year for the care of the syphilitic blind. This does not include the cost of the 40,000 who die annually of syphilitic cardiac conditions, nor the cost of the 160,000 who are annually treated for syphilitic heart disease; nor the more than 500,000 new cases of syphilis reporting for treatment each year.

"There are more than 6,500,000 people with syphilis in the United States. It is estimated that new and old cases under treatment is 683,000. But for every case receiving treatment there is at least one more infected and having no treatment at all—more dangerous as a source of infection to others. One niivesaetof infection to others. One in five new cases is found among boys and girls under 20, and more than half of all new infections occur in the age group from 20 to 30, which is one sixth of the whole population.

Dr. Parran says: "I consider syphilis the most urgent public health problem in this country today. In the first place, so many people have it; and when the disease is untreated or improperly treated, its results are so dangerous to them and so costly to the community. In the second place is contagious when it is untreated. Each person who has it is dangerous to those with whom he associates. In the great majority of cases, not treated.

"All this toll of human misery is unnecessary. America can conquer syphilis. The knowledge, the doctors, and the drugs are here. In the past ignorance has been the stumbling block, but that is not true today. The only possible stumbling blocks today are the inertia and indifference of the American people.

service to his clients and opened a law office in Chicago. He had neither friends nor relatives in that city. He had much time for reflection and pondered much on conditions of life and business in a large city. In 1905, as a result of his studies and reflections, he had formulated a definite philosophy of business relations. Calling together three of his friends, each of whom was engaged in a different line of business, he expounded his theory to them.

This group was the nucleus of the first Rotary Club in the world, the Rotary Club of Chicago. Through the work of Paul Harris and other members of the Chicago club, similar clubs began to be organized in a number of other cities.

After a few years the necessity for some organization to bind these different clubs together became apparent. Thereupon Paul Harris, Chesley Perry, and others organized the National Association of Rotary Clubs in America, in 1910. When clubs were formed in Canada and Great Britain, making the movement international in scope, the name was changed, in 1912, to The International Association of Rotary Clubs. In 1922 the name was changed to Rotary International.

Paul Harris was the first President of the National Association and the first President of the International Association of Rotary Clubs and is President-Emeritus of Rotary International. He has traveled extensively and has visited many countries throughout the world in which there are Rotary clubs.

Plow Under Wheat By May 1st Advice Of County Agent

The State Agricultural Conservation Committee has set May 1st. as the final date which wheat may be turned under, without being counted as Soil-Depleting in the non-humid area of the State. Milam County is in the nonhumid area. Therefore we would suggest that you plow under all Wheat before the above mentioned date. Otherwise such Wheat will be classed as Soil-Depleting, and will be subtracted from your tilled acreage for the purpose of making the cotton allotments.

The attractive home of Mrs. Judd Davis was the scene of a beautiful Easter party when she entertained her contract bridge club, and a number of special guests invited in to enjoy this hospitality.

Easter Lilies were the chosen floral adornment and lent beauty and attraction to the reception rooms, where a series of games were enjoyed for a season. Closing the games with Mrs. Rush Thomas winner of the guests' highest score, and Mrs. Albert Collins, highest score for club members. Table low cuts went to Mesdames H. F. Smith, Jr., C. G. Swift, Robert Stedman and David Crawford, all winners receiving lovely souvenirs.

Guests present other than club members were: Mesdames Rush Thomas, L. C. Wood, David Crawford, J. L. Calloway, C. G. Swift, Ed Parnell, W. O. Newton, Oxsheer Smith and H. F. Smith, Jr.

Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Newton assisted the hostess in serving a dainty salad plate in attractive Easter design.

Friends in Cameron have received announcement telling of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hesse of Bartlett. The mother, former Miss Kleypas of Falls county, was at the home of her mother in Oenaville where her baby was born. Mr. and Mrs. Hesse formerly lived in Burlington. The baby weighed 10 pounds and was born on April 12th.

Miss Vivian Whites, Yoe High graduate and now in Texas University, was home for several days the past week to visit with her parents. She returned to the university on Monday. Miss Whites is one of the leading students in first year work. Her name is in the bright lights at State, her recent card showing 5 A's.

John Calvin Haygood, student in military science at Allen Academy in Bryan, was home for the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haygood. He was recently named an alternate for West Point and hopes some day to complete his education in the nation's war college. John Calvin, one of the ranking students in graduation from Yoe High school has been promoted to Major at Allen. He is drum major for the band also.

on record. Finally, in 1903, he reached the highest rank existing at the time, that of lieutenant general.

When General Young was retired for age in 1904, he was succeeded in the Army's highest post by General Chaffee, who also became a lieutenant general. The transfer of the office was marked by a unique and pleasing incident, in which General Young gave his successor a pair of shoulder straps, accompanied by a note which read:

"Private S. B. M. Young, 12th Pennsylvania Cavalry, presents Private Adna R. Chaffee, 6th U. S. Cavalry, with this pair of lieutenant general's shoulder straps."

General Chaffee retired in 1906 and died in 1914 at the age of 72. General Young lived 20 years after his retirement from active service, and died in 1924 at the age of 84.

Safety organizations throughout the country have long made appeals to motorists in an effort to promote the habit of careful driving, to the end that the appalling loss of life through preventable accident may be reduced.

Unfortunately these appeals seem to fall upon deaf ears, as the 1937 record of fatalities and injuries in automobile accidents reached new high figures. Still, the effort for safety must go on, in the hope that some good may result.

A recent pamphlet contains this pledge, to which every motorist might well subscribe:

1. I will obey all the rules of safe driving all of the time.
2. I will deny the use of my car to anyone who forgets even a part of those rules a part of the time.
3. I will set an example of highway courtesy.
4. I will uphold the authorities as they endeavor to protect life and property from the incompetent and careless.
5. I will aid in arousing public opinion to the point where it will insist that something effective be done immediately to stop this slaughter on our streets and highways.

dition to his family he has the care of his aged mother who does not draw a pension from the state.

"I want the office one more term," said Mr. Devers. "It will help me and I need it."

Mr. Devers promises the people that he will serve them as well and as faithfully in the next two years as he has during his previous terms in this office. He believes that a public office is a trust about which is imposed solemn obligations and to discharge his duties in accordance with his conceptions of public service has been one of his principal aims through the years he has served in the office.

Due to his physical condition, Mr. Devers may not be able to see all the voters. He makes this appeal to them, hoping that his friends and the people generally will accord him the support he feels is so necessary to his success in the campaign. Mr. Devers has lived among the people here practically all his life. He is well known to the people.

Many, Many Women Say Cardui Helped Them

By taking Cardui, thousands of women have found they can avoid much of the monthly suffering they used to endure. Cramping spells, nagging pains and jangled nerves can be relieved—either by Cardui or by a physician's treatment.

Besides easing certain pains, Cardui aids in building up the whole system by helping women to get more strength from their food.

of treasurer he conducted a shoe repair business in Cameron. His life has demonstrated that although a man may often have difficulties he can overcome them and merit the esteem and admiration of his fellowmen. Industrious and capable Mr. Devers has kept pace with his neighbors, has carried his share of the responsibilities as a citizen and believes that he is entitled to the support of the people, not because he needs the office but because he feels he can and has given them a good service as treasurer of the county.

Mr. Devers was hopeful that he might be able to see each one personally. If that is not possible he sends his greetings to all and will be deeply grateful for any consideration you may show his candidacy.

fifty additions have been made to this enterprising church.

Of outstanding interest has been the mission work of the Cameron Presbyterian church. Three fields are still maintained, Hoyte, Marlow and the Mexican Presbyterian church of this city. Two other outpost areas have been canvassed with a view to establishing outpost Sunday Schools.

Evangelistic meetings are being planned now for the Hoyte and Marlow communities. A daily vacation school is being planned for the Hoyte community.

Plans have now been completed for the Sunday services. Dr. S. L. Joekel will be the speaker. Decorations are in charge of circle No. 1. Mrs. Judd Davis chairman. Music is under the direction of Mrs. W. T.

Hefley. Mrs. J. H. Sapp will preside at the organ.

The pastor and officers urge every Presbyterian to make it a matter of conscience to attend upon this sacred service of the church calendar. Visitors are welcome.

of only 75 per cent and Transportation Aid will be paid on a basis of only 60 per cent.

The Milam County School Board of Trustees have put forth every possible effort in order that the bus drivers be paid for their services. They have already borrowed the limit of funds from the bank and paid the bus drivers and in addition have issued a number of deficiency checks expecting a refund from the State but with this shortage in sight, the County Board will not be in position to issue any more checks for transportation. The bus drivers will have to look to their sending districts, receiving districts or the parents of the children they transport for the April and May salaries.

This is a deplorable situation and in many cases will work a great hardship on the bus drivers, teachers and students but with the aid and cooperation of those who are in position to help, we may be able to carry on for a while at least. In case the State does pay more than 60 per cent transportation aid the districts that help pay the bus drivers will be refunded on a proportional basis.

the inspiration for the Rotary emblem which was designed as a simple wheel, in 1905, and after passing through various stages evolved as a cog wheel which was officially adopted in 1924.

Slogan Is Coined

In an address at the Rotary convention in Portland, Oregon, 1911, the late Arthur Frederick Sheldon, one of the early members of the Rotary Club of Chicago, used the expression: "He profits most who serves best," and this was adopted as the best expression of the principles of Rotary. Some years later the phrase "Service Above Self" was coined and the two expressions were united in 1916 to form the Rotary motto of today.

Harris First President

When there were sixteen clubs in the United States, the founder felt that there should be some co-operation between them. The chairman of the committee on extension in the Rotary Club of Chicago was Chesley R. Perry, young librarian and teacher. These two brought together in Chicago the representatives of the sixteen clubs in August, 1910, and the National Association of Rotary Clubs was founded. Paul Harris was the first president and Chesley R. Perry, chairman of that convention, was persuaded to do the secretarial work.

Soon after the formation of the National Association of Rotary Clubs Rotary took root in Winnipeg, Canada. On visits to London and Dublin, American Rotarians launched the Rotary clubs there and at the convention in 1912, the name International Association of Rotary Clubs was adopted. This was shortened to Rotary International in 1922.

To Foreign Countries

Cuba was the first non-English speaking country to welcome Rotary. The Havana Rotary Club was chartered in April, 1916. On the continent of Europe, the first club was founded at Madrid, Spain, in 1921. In South America, the first club was founded at Montevideo, Uruguay, in 1919. In Australia, the first club was formed at Melbourne in 1921. In Asia, the first club was formed at Shanghai, China, in 1919.

Rotary begins with the individual and his responsibility in his own vocation which is the subject of greatest concern to every man. Outside his vocation, a Rotarian has his duties as a good neighbor and citizen. Beyond this, the Rotarian develops the international viewpoint. Nations are now such close neighbors, their daily life is so closely woven together through dependence upon each other's products, goods and services, that the international mind is one of the most important characteristics of a leader in business and the professions. War is not prevented by some spectacular effort at the eleventh hour but by a gradual education of the people and their statesmen.

There is today a chain of over 4,300 Rotary clubs encircling the world. In each of them the Rotarian visitor is greeted with a friendly handclasp. There are more than 185,000 Rotarians in these clubs, each of them extending his influence in his own small circle, each inspired by the thought of "service above self."

Banquet

occasion of its first meeting here and read a short historic sketch about it. The gavel was made from cedar taken from the walls of the old Fort at Nashville on the Brazos. It was presented to the club without name and given in honor of the pioneers who built the old fort of Robertson's colony in the Texas wilderness.

Cameron's Rotary Club was sponsored by the Belton Rotary Club. It was a further gesture of interest and co-operation for the Belton Rotarians to arrange the program.

Rev. J. Parker Love of All Saints Episcopal Church, delivered the invocation and then followed the dinner served in faultless style by the women of the church. After the banquet plate was served Dr. Ballard delivered an address of welcome and presented Mr. Pimentel of Houston who was master of ceremonies. Telegrams and letters to Dr. Swift and the Cameron Rotary Club were read, one from Las Vegas, New Mexico. Dr. Frazier of Belton, one of the oldest Rotarians in Texas, was introduced.

Rotarians from Belton, Temple, Brenham, Marlin, Hearne, Bryan, Huntsville and Houston, responded to roll call of visiting clubs.

Walter Jenkins then led the audience in singing America and other songs. He got a great hand. He sang several numbers, among them "The Last Roundup" and "Old Man River." Jenkins sings at every meeting of Rotary International and his voice has been heard in Europe.

The Rotary address by Richard Hawkins was an inspirational appeal for the principles of Rotary which he declared offer a common ground upon which all men may meet in accord. Religion and politics are not tolerated in Rotary. Business men know each other better and can reach an understanding through Rotary not possible, he said in any other service club. The cause of world peace is now being served by Rotary International.

Louis Ball of Huntsville, former District Governor, spoke briefly. Mr. Pimentel introduced G. A. Mabry of Houston who has just been elected President of the Rotary Club in Houston. Mr. Mabry after a short talk presented Dr. Swift with a silver bell and gavel. The bell is topped with a bronze Rotary emblem.

Mr. Pimentel gave an inspirational talk on Rotary, touching upon his travels abroad. He outlined Rotary policies. He was manifestly happy to note such progress in Cameron. All members of the Cameron Club were presented scrolls on which are printed creeds of Rotary and were introduced to the audience.

Dr. Clifford Swift in a few well chosen words accepted the Charter and the meeting was brought to a close.

Cows

cow was not a good producer so he traded for another and gave $25 in addition. Thus Mr. Armstrong had one cow. He purchased 4 cows on credit and went to work. Now he is selling around 200 pounds of milk a day and his gross income per year is $918 from the sale of milk.

This income, says Mr. Armstrong pays all his farm expenses and buys the supplies they need for themselves and their groceries.

Mr. Armstrong gradually increased his herd. He has brought his milk business along in a gradual way and knows every detail of operation. His cows are high grade. He has improved his calf crop with white face male, not planning at present to increase his number beyond the 14 cows he now owns. Mr. Armstrong sets an example for energy seldom noted. He farms 132 acres of land, has no help but owns a tractor. He spends two and half hours each day with his cows. "Pretty profitable time I call it," says Mr. Armstrong, "when I get $76.50 per month for two and a half hours work." He says he makes $3 from milk to $1 from cotton.

He will plant 50 acres in cotton which is above his quota, he said. In addition to his farming and milk Mr. Armstrong raised and sold $135 worth of hogs last year. He now has 17 head of hogs which he is raising from whey he gets back from the cheese lant. He intends to sell $270 worth of hogs this year. He will have 16 acres in sudan in the bottom and has good clover on the upland. Last winter he fed his cows on cactus.

Mr. Armstrong is a native of Alabama. He came to Texas when he was 13 years old. He farms with a Farmall tractor. He would build a silo if he owned the farm, he said.

Mr. Armstrong said he was grateful to the Citizens National Bank for early assistance in financing some cows. He transacts his banking business with a Rosebud bank although he lives only 3 miles from Cameron. He believes banks should help the farmers by financing cows for them.

Earl Bailey of the Herald plant was in Oklahoma over the week end to visit with relatives, returning by rail to the city on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. White and Mary Frances White were at the Hunt ranch near Killgen Sunday to visit in the home of Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hunt. A sister, Miss Addie Hunt from San Angelo, was home for the week end also.

John S. Burns, former resident here, was in Cameron over the week end, doing campaign work for C. V. Terrell who is now chairman of the State Railroad Commission and a candidate for re-election.

Wail of Taxpayers Grows Ever Louder; Pennsylvanian Turns Out Masterpiece

Several readers liked the "pome"—The Eyes of TAXES—I republish the other day, and sent in comments:

The most appreciated comment was from my good friend, Dr. M. L. Graves of Houston, who sent a copy of a letter one Ignacio Castiglia, Connellsville, Pa., wrote Commissioner John W. Rankin of Uniontown, Pa., explaining why he found it difficult to forward a check to cover an obligation to the county.

Castiglia's letter:

"In reply to your request to send a check, I wish to inform you the present condition of my bank account makes it almost impossible. My shattered financial condition is due to federal laws, corporation laws, liquor laws, sister in laws and outlaws."

"Through these laws I am compelled to pay a business tax, amusement tax, head tax, school tax, gas tax, light tax, water tax, sales tax, liquor tax, income tax, food tax, furniture tax and excise tax. I am required to get a business license, car license, operator's license, truck license—not to mention a marriage license and a dog license.

"I am also required to contribute to every society and organization which the genius of man is capable of bringing into life; to women's relief, the unemployed relief, and the gold digger's relief. Also to every charitable institution in the city.

"For my own safety, I am required to carry health insurance, life insurance, fire insurance, property insurance, accident insurance, business insurance, earthquake insurance, tornado insurance, unemployment insurance and old age insurance.

"My business is so governed it is no easy matter to find out who owns it. I am inspected, expected, suspected, disrespected, rejected, dejected, examined, reexamined, informed, required, summoned, fined, commanded and compelled, until I provide the inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race.

The Money-Saving Tractor

Fuel is the biggest factor in the cost of running a tractor. Exclusive John Deere two-cylinder engine design makes it possible for you to save on fuel costs—to burn the money-saving fuels such as distillate, fuel oils, and furnace oils successfully and efficiently during the entire long life of the tractor.

Two-cylinder design gives you fewer parts — parts that are stronger, heavier, and more rugged. Consequently, they wear better, last longer, and save on upkeep costs.

Two-cylinder engine design permits you to inspect and adjust a John Deere Tractor yourself. You save on expensive mechanical help. Straight-line transmission, with belt pulley right on the crankshaft, puts more power on the drawbar and belt.

Come in and see for yourself why John Deere Tractors are so economical to operate.

FARM CLUB NEWS

Mrs. J. A. McKinney,
Jones Prairie Home Dem. Club,
Cameron, Texas, Rt. 2:

"Windows on outside walls placed near partition walls give more air and distribute light better than if placed near corner of house" said Miss Dorothy Porter, Home Demonstration Agent, in discussing "Air and Light in the Kitchen" at the home of Mrs. L. W. Marek, April 12.

Many kitchens of rural communities have been built with very little thought of comfort, just a place to cook seems to have been the only thought. A kitchen of rectangular shape with doors and windows placed on two walls not only adapts itself to better arrangement of the furniture but also for better adjustment of light and ventilation. The kitchen windows should be made to lower from the top so the hot air and kitchen odors can escape.

Outside kitchen entrance should be avoided because they attract flies and it is almost impossible to keep them out of the house.

A short business session was held with Mrs. T. F. Cloud, president, in the chair. Council report was given by Mrs. A. L. Burnett. Mrs. Cloud presented a questionnaire on the second program for the purpose of ascertaining if they were proving satisfactory.

Those attending the meeting were Mesdames L. W. Marek, E. B. Yager, O. O. Ansley, Julius Carothers, A. H. Patzke, Theo. Tucker, J. R. Young, S. M. Harrell, T. F. Cloud, A. L. Burnett, S. S. Hickman and J. A. McKinney and Mayme Lois Lucas. Visitors were Mrs. W. J. Fontaine and Mrs. Henry Roden and Miss Evelyn Harrell.

Mrs. E. B. Yager will be hostess to the club April 26. "Safety in the Home" is the subject to be discussed.

Dorothy Porter,
County Home Dem. Agent,
Milam County:

"Arrange doors and windows in the kitchen so that equipment can be placed to save steps," Miss Dorothy Porter, County Home Demonstration Agent told members of the Gardner Home Demonstration Club when it met in the home of Mrs. Lester Hart, April 13th.

Doors placed along one side and end of the room do not separate working centers. Windows placed high give wall space below them for placing equipment. Many kitchens can be changed to make better work shops with a little work.

Mrs. Hart who is Kitchen Improvement Demonstrator in the club, exhibited her kitchen which she has nearly completed.

The hostess and her mother Mrs. Yount, served cake and coffee to 18 club members and guests.

Mrs. Beuna Chambers,
Bryant Station Home Dem. Club,
Rogers, Texas:

"Avoid a single drop light in the kitchen as it will throw your shadow on each word unit" was the timely tip given by Miss Dorothy Porter, Home Demonstration Agent, to those who are installing electricity, during her discussion of "Light and Air in the Kitchen," when the Bryant Station club met with Mrs. Edward Senkel on Thursday, April 14.

"If only one light is possible put it near the ceiling and use a 100 watt bulb," she advised further. "When using oil lamps try to have one on a small shelf, or better, a bracket lamp with reflector fastened to the wall above each work unit. This makes for comfort, safety and efficiency."

Miss Porter also stated that the ideal kitchen has window space equal to 20 per cent of the floor space, placed to provide cross ventilation and with some device for lowering them from the top. Doors are as few as possible and so placed that the path through the kitchen does not interfere with working space.

During the business meeting presided over by Mrs. C. L. Lively, club president, Mrs. Edward Senkel was nominated delegate to the Home Demonstration Association which meets during Farmers Short Course.

The hostess served delicious refreshments to the 16 members present and 5 visitors, Miss Ada Mae Hinman, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. H. Senkel, Mrs. L. O. Daniels, Mrs. Hugh McVoy and Miss Ruby Underwood.

The next meeting will be with Misses Ellen and Cleo Neal, hostesses, on Thursday, April 28. The subject will be "Safety in the Home." Roll call will be answered with some thought connected with this subject. Visitors and prospective new members are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Woodruff, and their son, Forester, were in Tyler over the week end to spend the Easter holidays with Mrs. Woodruff's parents.

Coach L. C. Wood of Yoe High School, Mrs. Wood and their son, Bobby, were in McGregor, their old home, over the week end for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. F. G. Blake and Mrs. J. B. White were visitors in Waco the past week.

CAMERON INVESTORS BUY $31,350 IN BONDS

Cameron investors in government savings bonds have spent $31,350 according to J. R. Hays, Postmaster who recently received authority to release totals along with other postmasters of the country.

Mr. Hays says that all save $7,500 were purchased through the local postoffice.

The report is an interesting comparison with other cities of Texas. Mr. Hays' report says:

"Through the close of business March 7, 1938, there had been sold in the United States $1,584,462,875 in government savings bonds. The record for sales in one day was Monday, January 10, of this year when $10,029,775 maturity value, of these bonds were reported sold in the United States.

BELIEF

I believe in you. There are several reasons why I must believe in you.

First, it is imperative to me that I believe in someone. I must put my faith and trust in someone. It does something for me. Belief in someone else keeps me from being stagnant, cankerous, dead. My belief in you is a vital, nourishing food to the very foundation of my life.

Second, you will be whatever I expect you to be. That is, whatever I look for in you, I shall be most likely to find. Whatever I believe in someone somehow reveals itself to that person and he will react accordingly. If I have confidence in him, he will most likely live up to my expectation. If I show a suspecting, distrustful attitude and look for the worst in him, I shall probably find just that. "Give, and it shall be given unto you." Whatever I receive at the hands of my fellowman will be the harvest from the seeds I have sown.

Lastly, I can appreciate what it means to have someone believe in you. A knowledge that someone is "counting on" you will keep you going when you are just about down. To know that someone believes in you is a powerful incentive to reward that faith with the best that is in you. There is no one who will not do more for the person who has confidence in him.

Belief is a very important factor, both to the one who "believes in" and the one who is "believed in."

James Gagney Will Bring Musical Show To Cameron April 26 and 27th

For many reasons "Something to Sing About," the novelty comedy with music and dancing, starring James Gagney, produced by Victor Schertzinger and Zion Myers for Grand National, which will be shown at the Cameron Theatre April 26 and 27, may be said to be both James Gagney's and Grand National's most pretentious film production to date.

In the first place, the popular dynamic star makes a radical departure from his former style of roles. Instead of being the wise-cracking, smart aleck, gal-slapping Romeo he is wont to portray, Gagney is seen as a downright song and dance man and the orchestra leader of a swanky New York night club, who becomes a motion picture star.

Of course, all of Jimmy's admirers know that he was once a fancy "hooper" on the New York stage and in vaudeville, but hitherto motion picture producers could only see him in "tough" roles. It was left for Victor Schertzinger, famous director author composer, and Grand National to see Gagney's possibilities in the story of a band leader "gone Hollywood" and to sell the idea to Gagney, himself.

Playing opposite the fast-stepping star in the principal feminine role is the lovely Evelyn Daw, who makes her screen debut in the picture. She is the South Dakota "Jenny Lind," who crashed into Victor Schertzinger's office and sang her way into a contract. She is of orthodox movie size, has auburn red hair and steel blue eyes and has devoted all her childhood years to singing. Her voice is a marvelous liquid, lyric soprano. For the record Miss Daw is just twenty years old.

Behind the production are some 36 elaborate sets. One of them—a modernistic cafe—covers an entire sound stage. In another the deck of an ocean steamer is reproduced. Four blocks of San Francisco's busiest section provide exciting exterior sequences. Scores of "special" extras, who received a minimum of $16.50 per day, lent their distinction and magnificent personal appearance to the swanky social and night club scenes.

Seven world famous male dancers augment Gagney's dancing appearances. They are Harland Dixon, formerly of the famous team of Doyle and Dixon; Johnny Boyle of Boyle and Brazil; Johnny (Skins) Miller and Buck Mack, of Miller and Mack; Pat Moran of Clifford and Moran; Joe Bennett, and Eddie Allen.

The entire musical score and five original songs were written and directed by Victor Schertzinger, who is internationally known for his "Marcheta." It is said, that "Marcheta" has topped the six million mark in sales. The royalties from this musical masterpiece, alone have made Schertzinger independently rich.

As an especial and added novelty attraction in "Something to Sing About," are the famous Nelson fiighting cats, brought especially to Hollywood from New York for only four days to work.

Essentially a sparkling satire on the Hollywood scene, "Something to Sing About" is a back-stage view of the movie capital set to music. Featured with Jimmy Gagney, the star, and Evelyn Daw, the feminine lead, are William Frawley, Mona Barrie, Richard Tucker, William Davidson and Johnny Arthur. Others in the notable cast of headliners are Jimmy Newill, Candy Candido, Cully Richards, Gene Lockhart, Bill Carey and Philip Ahn.

1938 Gas Range

FOR BETTER COOKING IN CLEANER, COOLER KITCHEN

Outstanding among its many improvements are the simmer burners on 1938 gas range. They eliminate boil-overs, food boiling dry and excessive moisture in kitchen.

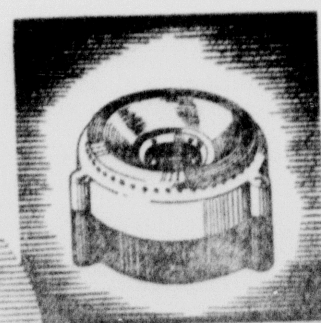

With their automatically controlled boiling heat a continuous gentle boiling action is maintained—thus boil-overs are eliminated because violent boiling action is done away with.

A gentle boiling action does not rapidly evaporate liquids. With this method over an hour is required to boil away one cup of water—thus, danger of foods boiling dry is eliminated. And cooking with little water in covered pans preserves vitamin and mineral content of food—keeps kitchen cooler because little vapor rises from range.

See these improved burners and other features of 1938 gas range. There's nothing like one for easier, better cooking.

NEW BEAR CREEK BRIDGE IS ASKED

The Commissioners Court has not acted on the petition filed by several hundred citizens in the Salem community asking for a new bridge over Bear Creek.

A delegation composed of R. L. Batte, Roy Law and R. J. Stevens appeared before the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday night to ask indorsement which was voted and a committee authorized to go before the court with the Salem citizens.

The Good Roads Committee of the Chamber of Commerce did not appear but Secretary Paden and R. G. Grabein went to court with the citizens.

Twelve automobiles wrecks have occurred at Bear Creek bridge. It is a narrow bridge and was built at an angle out of line with the road and at the foot of a steep grade.

The citizens also asked for a road to be improved a mile west of the present Salem road. This old road has fallen into disuse because there is no bridge over Bear Creek.

How CARDUI Helps Women

Cardui is a purely vegetable medicine, found by many women to ease functional pains of menstruation. It also helps to strengthen women, who have been weakened by poor nourishment, by increasing their appetite and improving their digestion. Many have reported lasting benefit from the wholesome nutritional assistance obtained by taking Cardui. If you need help like this, get Cardui at the nearest drug store, read the directions and try it.

MRS. E. J. McCALL IS BURIED THURSDAY

Mrs. E. J. McCall, 65, resident of Yarrellton, was buried there on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. O. C. Acree, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating. Interment was made in the cemetery at Yarrellton.

Mrs. McCall's body was found near the home Tuesday morning in a shallow pond of water. She had been in declining health for some time. She is believed to have left the home for a walk and fainting, fell into the water. Some indications were that she may have suffered a heart stroke.

Justice of Peace B. G. Rice of Ben Arnold, held an inquest but did not render a verdict Wednesday.

Mrs. McCall, for a number of years lived in Cameron with her husband and daughter, Miss Dulce McCall. They moved to their farm about two years ago.

Mrs. McCall is survived by four daughters: Mrs. Katye George, of Texarkana; Mrs. Jim Perkins of Yarrellton; Miss Marion McCall of Amarillo and Miss Dulce McCall of Yarrellton; a sister Mrs. Annie Taylor of Laredo; a brother, Tom Freeman of Slaton and formerly of Rosebud. She was an aunt of Walton Taylor, Houston attorney, and a sister of the late J. K. Freeman, prominent lawyer of Cameron, and the late Jack C. Freeman.

Both Cameron brothers died about two years ago. Friends here were sorrowful over the loss to the McCall family.
